

ACTS 10

GENTILES ARE SAVED

Chapter 10

Summary: God commands Cornelius, a Roman, gentile centurion to send for Peter (1-8). Peter has a vision of God's cleansing for all people (9-16). Cornelius' messengers ask Peter to visit Cornelius (17-23). Peter meets with Cornelius, family, and friends and explains the unusual call for a Jew to visit Gentiles (24-33). Peter begins to share Jesus with them (34-43). Suddenly the Holy Spirit falls upon these Gentiles, for they speak with tongues. They are then baptized in water (44-48).
